All about Bar-B-Q

Authentic Bar-B-Q is a labor of love involving hours of preparation. We use only the finest lean meats and trim them twice—before and after the seasoning and cooking process. The technique of closed pit cooking imparts flavors that cannot be matched by other methods. This process gives our Beef, Pork, Ribs and Chicken a reddish or pink color, even though it is thoroughly done.

A distinguishing feature of Brian's Bar-B-Q is its dual cooking method. With closed smokers and char-grills, we can offer both slow-cooked Bar-B-Q and flame grilled specialties. Oak logs provide the smoldering embers for smoking meats and open fire for the grilling. Ask for one of our sauces: Regular Bar-B-Q, Hot Bar-B-Q or Sweet Baby Back Grilling Sauce, our North Carolina Vinegar Sauce, our South Carolina Mustard Sauce...or one of our other creations.

Brian's Bar-B-Q is who you call because We Love to Cater!

What Makes Us Different

Many weekends when you are sleeping, Brian's Bar-B-Q Competition Cook-Off team is up all night competing in one of the State Bar-B-Q championships throughout the Southeast. We compete in these Cook Offs so we can create for you the best Bar-B-Q possible. Other restaurants don't do this . . . We do . . . We're better . . . And that's why.

Here are a few of the other things that set us apart:

- This restaurant is run for the enjoyment and pleasure of you, our guest, not the convenience of the staff or owners. If you have a comment, suggestion or question, call me at 736-0828 and ask for Brian.
- Some of us went to school and are chefs. Really! Have confidence that you are eating real food prepared by real chefs.
- More importantly, many of our crew, including Jayne and I, have been trained by the Kansas City Bar-B-Q Society as Certified Bar-B-Q Judges.
- I like crisp fries. If yours aren't crisp, the way you like them, send them back. Maybe the kitchen will get the message.
- Substitutions are OK by us, don't be bashful, speak up!
- Our iced tea is always brewed fresh. Period.
- True Baby Back Ribs are narrow Danish cut! They are the best cut in the world, which is what we use. All of our other ribs are American and come from only selected sources.
- Our steaks are cut from fresh, top quality USDA, grain fed western beef. If you don't believe me, give me a call, and I'll show you.
- We make most of our salads and dressings. I think that the Bleu Cheese Dressing and Smoked Chicken salad are second to none. If you have a good recipe, let us know!
- We make all of our Bar-B-Q Sauces, Marinades, Soups and Beans from fresh ingredients using original recipes.
- Hand breaking all of our seafood gives a superior, fresh taste.

100% Satisfaction Guaranteed

Guaranteed Quality. Yes, that is exactly what we mean. Your satisfaction is guaranteed by all of us at Brian's Bar-B-Q. We want you to know that we know that our success depends totally on your satisfaction with the quality of Brian's food, service and atmosphere.

If you find that we haven't reached that goal, please let us know. We'll do our best to make it right - right then. It's that simple. We value you as our guest, and your complete satisfaction is our goal.
